

CRIMINAL RECORD REVIEW BOARD (CRRB) RULES

The following rules have been adopted by the CRRB pursuant to its authority at M.G.L. c. 6, § 172(30)(c) which reads as follows, “The department may establish rules or regulations imposing other requirements or affirmative obligations upon requestors as a condition of obtaining access to the database; provided, however, that such additional rules and regulations are not in conflict with the state and federal Fair Credit Reporting Acts.”

RULE #1: “Requestors and users of the iCORI system are required to agree and comply with the iCORI terms and conditions when registering for an iCORI account and upon each submission of an iCORI request for CORI information. DCJIS and CRRB are authorized to investigate and hear complaints alleging violations of the iCORI terms and conditions. Requestors and/or users may be subject to sanctions by CRRB for such violations in accordance with G.L. c. 6, § 168.” Adopted by the CRRB on February 26, 2014

RULE #2: “The Criminal Record Review Board (CRRB) allows its members to participate remotely in a CRRB meeting under the following conditions:

- (a) a quorum is physically present at the meeting;
- (b) all members are clearly audible to one another;
- (c) the member shall not be deemed absent for the meeting;
- (d) the member has submitted a request to the chair in advance of the meeting; and
- (e) the chair has determined that physical presence of the member is unreasonably difficult based on one or more of the following reasons:
 - (i) Personal illness;
 - (ii) Personal disability;
 - (iii) Emergency;
 - (iv) Military service; or
 - (v) Geographic distance.”

Adopted by the CRRB on June 11, 2014
